

APPLY THE SKILLS

from The General History of Virginia • from Of Plymouth Plantation

1. Literary Analysis: Find examples in the selections of these important characteristics of narrative accounts. Write your answers in the chart.

What the Writer Saw 	Selection 	Factual Information
What the Writer Heard 		Subjective Bias

2. Literary Analysis: What was Smith's purpose in writing his narrative account of exploring Virginia?

---

---

3. Literary Analysis: What was Bradford's purpose in writing his narrative account of Plymouth Plantation?

---

---

4. Reading Strategy: Choose a sentence in the narratives that you found difficult to understand. Try breaking down the sentence to separate the hard language from the key parts. Write what the sentence means in your own words.

Original sentence: _____

Your interpretation of the sentence: _____

5. Hypothesize: Explain how Bradford's account might have been different if the Pilgrims had successfully settled at their original destination farther south.

---

---